Welcome to September!

We have a couple fun months coming here. September will be our annual Frankenmuth Chicken Dinner on 9/17. As has become a tradition, there will be an overnight stay at Port Austin afterwards. Participating in the dinner consists of paying Jim for the dinner, participating in Port Austin consists of making your own lodging plans. Due to number of people known to be participating in the Zehnder's meal, we probably won't have a private room.

As usual, the Blue Spruce Motel has rooms for us, but there is also camping in the area and probably other motels. Weather permitting, we will probably have or join a bonfire at the firepit of the Blue Spruce. So – lunch at 1:15p at Zehnder's, and everything after that is “when we get there”. The ride from Frankenmuth to Port Austin is a nice ride, by car or by bike.

In October, we have our picnic on our usual meeting weekend, so yes, combined meeting and eating. But mostly eating. I do believe Don has us lined up with wonderful food from Lakeshore Smokehouse. Some seriously good food. And...of course, the desserts that club members will be bringing to share. We'll be meeting/eating/meeting at Columbus County Park in St. Clair County. I promise to try to avoid doing any important business on that “meeting” for those that aren't joining for the picnic.

Jeff has lined up two alternative rides for our September meeting, depending on the weather. If we opt to stay near the dealership, it will be the Stony Creek Roadhouse. If the weather is good, we'll be going to the Dorsey House.

The year is flying by, but there's still lots of riding time left, so here's hoping you (and I) get a chance to get out and rack up some two-wheel miles!

We had our annual “Where’s Waldo” ride on August 20. Brian, Jim and I made the trip. We did a circle tour – taking I-75 past Bowling Green then hopping onto OH-15, then came back via US-23 through Fostoria; the usual route. The place was packed solid and we had to park a little downstream, but we managed to get a table right away as we were a small group.

Hopefully, Rhys will be able to lead the Waldo ride again next year!

Coming up this month: 1) the September meeting on the 10th with its follow-on lunch ride, 2) the Chicken Dinner at Zendhers in Frankenmuth on the 17th with the optional overnight at Port Austin, and 3) the RA National Rally starting on the 28th.

- Meeting and lunch ride, Saturday September 10. There are two options for lunch, weather dependent: The Dorsey House, with its M-136 twisties (Google Map, downloadable GPX file) , or Stony Creek Roadhouse (Google Map, downloadable GPX file), along 26-Mile near the Metropark.
- As is tradition – because we started doing it and no one has stopped us yet – we have a group ride planned to Frankenmuth. We will be meeting for breakfast Saturday, September 17 at 8:00am, at Ted’s Coney Island, 67176 Gratiot Ave, Richmond, MI 48062. Kickstands up at 9:30am (Google Map, downloadable GPX file). There’s an optional follow-on ride to Port Austin (Google Map, downloadable GPX file).
- Let us know if you’re planning to attend the RA National Rally! It runs from September 28 - October 2.

We hope you’ll join us on the club rides. Get out there and ride!
